

January 24, 2012
Miscellaneous Curriculum Changes (effective fall 2012)

Department of American Studies

Add the following courses to the list of courses fulfilling the Regionalism, Transnationalism, and the Public Sphere requirement for the regular concentration of the BA major in American studies: ART 485; COMM 437, 576; ENGL 267, 270, 271; HIST 358, 380.

Department of Asian Studies

Add the following course to the list of courses fulfilling the Japan regional requirement for major concentrations and minors: JAPN 351

To add to the major concentration in Japanese JAPN 351

Department of Biology

To revise the requirements section of the Undergraduate Bulletin for the BA and BS major in biology to match the prerequisite course information for BIOL 201 and 202. A grade of C or better in BIOL 101 (not BIOL 101 and 101L) and CHEM 101 or 102 (not both) are required for BIOL 201 and 202.

Department of Communication Studies

To inactivate the concentration in speech and hearing sciences for the BA major in communication studies because a comparable undergraduate major is now available in the Department of Allied Health Sciences' Division of Speech and Hearing Sciences.

To add COMM 355, 371, 472, and 670 to the list of courses for the rhetorical studies concentration of the major in communication studies, and to delete COMM 411 from the same list.

To retitle the concentration in media studies and production as media and technology studies and production, and to add COMM 150 and 657 to the course list for this concentration.

To revise the restriction that the major in communication studies consist of 10 COMM courses to permit students pursuing the new media option in the media and technology studies and production concentration to include courses offered by other units. This option requires students to take COMM 150 and COMP 110, three COMM courses above 400, and two approved courses from the Department of Computer Science or the School of Library and Information Sciences.

Department of Public Policy

To add SOCI 426 to the list of courses fulfilling the electives and optional field course requirement for the BA major in public policy.

Department of Sociology

To add SOCI 426 to the list of courses fulfilling the Context of Justice requirement for the minor in social and economic justice.