

Course Committee Report

Meeting: Tuesday, January 22, 2018, 3:30 – 5:00 PM, 3020A Steele Building

Committee Members Present: Beverly Foster, David Mora-Marín, Ted Mouw, Valérie Pruvost, Nick Siedentop, James Thompson

Staff Present: Ben Haven

Approved New Courses and Revised Courses with General Education Requirement Requests

Title	Status	General Education Requests	Effective Term
AERO 201: Team and Air Force Leadership Fundamentals	New Course		Fall 2019
AERO 202: Team and Air Force Leadership Fundamentals II	New Course		Fall 2019
ANTH 125: Canine Cultures	Course Revision	Field Work (EE), carries Social Sciences (SS) and Global Issues (GL)	Fall 2019
ANTH 335: The Commons, Ecology, and Human Futures	Course Revision	Global Issues (GL), carries Social Sciences (SS)	Fall 2019
ANTH 350: Anthropology of the State, Civil Society, and Politics	Course Revision	Social Sciences (SS), Global Issues (GL)	Fall 2019
ARTS 405: Advanced Darkroom Photography	Course Revision	Visual and Performing Arts (VP)	Fall 2019
CLAR/ARTH 482: Art and Archaeology of Achaemenid Persia	New Course	Visual and Performing Arts (VP), Beyond the North Atlantic (BN)	Fall 2019
DTCH 275: Rising Fortunes and Rising Tides: The Dutch Golden Age and its Legacy	Course Revision	World Before 1750 (WB), carries Service Learning (EE) and North Atlantic World (NA)	Fall 2019
ECON 415: Market Failures	New Course		Fall 2019
EDUC 181: Introduction to Human Development and Family Studies	Course Revision	Social Sciences (SS)	Fall 2019
EDUC 311: Life-Career Design	New Course	Social Sciences (SS)	Fall 2019
EDUC 349: Adulting	New Course	Social Sciences (SS)	Fall 2019
EDUC 375: Identity and Sexuality	New Course	U.S. Diversity (US)	Fall 2019
EDUC 387: Peer Tutoring	Course Revision	Service Learning (EE)	Fall 2019
EDUC 411: Making Liberal Arts "Work"	New Course	Social Sciences (SS), Field Work (EE)	Fall 2019
EDUC 698: Internship in Human Development and Family Studies	Course Revision	Service Learning (EE), carries Academic Internship (EE)	Fall 2019
ENEC 407: Principles of Energy Conversion	New Course		Fall 2019
ENEC 432: Environmental Life Cycle Assessment	New Course		Fall 2019
ENGL 154: Race and Racism in the Premodern World	New Course	Literary Analysis (LA), World Before 1750 (WB)	Fall 2019

Title	Status	General Education Requests	Effective Term
ENGL 164: Introduction to Latina/o Studies	Course Revision	Literary Analysis (LA), U.S. Diversity (US), remove Social and Behavioral Science (SS)	Fall 2019
ENGL 241: Studies in Oscar Wilde	New Course	Literary Analysis (LA)	Fall 2019
ENGL 244: Queer Cinema	New Course	Visual and Performing Arts (VP), U.S. Diversity (US)	Fall 2019
ENGL 292: Youth in Culture	Course Revision	Communication Intensive (CI), carries Literary Analysis (LA) and Mentored Research (EE)	Fall 2019
ENGL 308: Gram-O-Rama: Grammar in Performance	New Course	Visual and Performing Arts (VP), Communication Intensive (CI), Performing Arts (EE)	Fall 2019
ENGL 329: Medieval Feminisms	New Course	Literary Analysis (LA), World Before 1750 (WB)	Fall 2019
ENGL 362: Asian American Literature and History	New Course	Literary Analysis (LA), U.S. Diversity (US)	Fall 2019
ENGL 399: Cinema and the Museum	New Course	Visual and Performing Arts (VP)	Fall 2019
ENGL 494: Research Methods in Film Studies	New Course	Communication Intensive (CI), Mentored Research (EE)	Fall 2019
ENGL 66: Blake 2.0: William Blake in Popular Culture	New Course	Literary Analysis (LA) and North Atlantic World (NA)	Fall 2019
EXSS 327: Predictive Analytics in Sports	New Course	Mentored Research (EE)	Fall 2019
EXSS 397: Critical Analysis of Literature in Sport and Exercise Psychology	New Course		Fall 2019
FREN 150: Globalization and the French-Speaking World	New Course	Social Sciences (SS), Global Issues (GL)	Fall 2019
FREN 305: Healthcare in France and the Francophone World	New Course		Fall 2019
FREN 405: French for the Health Professions	New Course		Fall 2019
GEOG 215: Introduction to Spatial Data Science	New Course	Social Sciences (SS), Quantitative Intensive (QI)	Fall 2019
GEOG 415: Making Your Research Matter: Effective Design and Communication to Help Make an Impact on the World	New Course	Communication Intensive (CI)	Fall 2019
GEOG 441: Introduction to Watershed Systems	Course Revision	Field Work (EE), carries Physical and Life Sciences (PL)	Fall 2019
GEOG 567: Digital Image Processing with Google Earth Engine	New Course	Physical and Life Sciences (PL), Quantitative Intensive (QI)	Fall 2019
GEOL 567: Application of Plasma Mass Spectrometry in Earth and Environmental Sciences	New Course	Mentored Research (EE)	Fall 2019
GSLJ/JWST 268: Cultural Trends in Post-Communist Central Europe: Search for Identity, Importance of Jewish Voices	New Course	Literary Analysis (LA), Beyond the North Atlantic (BN)	Fall 2019
KOR/CMPL 232: Imagining the City in Modern Korea: Text, Image, Space	New Course	Literary Analysis (LA), Beyond the North Atlantic (BN)	Fall 2019
KOR/CMPL/WGST 237: Rebel, Lover, Martyr: Gender and Sexuality in North and South Korean Screen Cultures	New Course	Literary Analysis (LA), Beyond the North Atlantic (BN)	Fall 2019
KOR 409: Korean Through Current Affairs	New Course	Beyond the North Atlantic (BN), Communication Intensive (CI)	Fall 2019
LATN 224: Augustine's Confessions	New Course		Fall 2019

Title	Status	General Education Requests	Effective Term
LING/ASIA 260: Languages of Southeast Asia	New Course	Beyond the North Atlantic (BN)	Fall 2019
LING 458: Writing Systems: Past, Present, Future, Fictional	New Course	Social Sciences (SS), World Before 1750 (WB)	Fall 2019
MASC/ENGL 473: The Changing Coasts of Carolina	New Course	Communication Intensive (CI), Field Work (EE)	Fall 2019
WOLO 405: Advanced Wolof V	New Course		Fall 2019
WOLO 406: Advanced Wolof VI	New Course		Fall 2019

Approved Miscellaneous Changes

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
AERO 201	Course Title	The Evolution of United States Air Force Air and Space Power	Team and Air Force Leadership Fundamentals
	Transcript Title	AIR AND SPACE POWER	LEADERSHIP FUNDAMENTALS
	Course Description	Examines general aspects of air and space power through a historical perspective from the first balloons and dirigibles to the Cold War.	This course lays the foundation for leading effective teams and developing leadership skills.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
AERO 202	Course Title	The Evolution of United States Air Force Air and Space Power	Team and Air Force Leadership Fundamentals II
	Transcript Title	AIR AND SPACE POWER	LEADERSHIP FUNDAMENTALS II
	Course Description	Examines general aspects of air and space power through a historical perspective from post-Cold War military operations through the Global War on Terror.	This course continues to lay the foundation for leading effective teams and developing leadership skills.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
AERO 301	Course Title	Contemporary Leadership and Management	Leading People and Effective Communication I
	Transcript Title	CONTEMP LDRSHP & MGMT	LDRSHP & EFFECTIVE COMM
	Course Description	Part one of a two-part course concerning contemporary leadership and management. Emphasizes modern-day experiences, successes, and failures, with various theories on motivating people, organizing, and managing. Lectures and discussion focus on application of various principles as an Air Force officer. Class participation, comprehension, and oral communication skills are stressed.	Part one of a two-part course concerning contemporary leadership and management of the Air Force Officer.
	Prerequisites	AERO 101, 102, 201, and 202	AERO 101, 102, 201, and 202.
	Approaches requirement	Social and Behavioral Science
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
AERO 302	Course Title	Contemporary Leadership and Management	Leading People and Effective Communication II
	Transcript Title	CONTEMP LDRSHP & MGMT	LDRSHP & EFFECTIVE COMM II
	Course Description	A continuation of AERO 301. Class participation, comprehension, and written communication skills will be stressed.	Part two of a two-part course concerning contemporary leadership and management of the Air Force Officer.
	Prerequisites	AERO 101, 102, 201, and 202	AERO 101, 102, 201, and 202.
	Approaches requirement	Social and Behavioral Science
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
AERO 402	Course Title	The Military and Contemporary Society	National Security Affairs and Preparation for Active Duty
	Course Description	Survey and analysis of the major issues affecting officers in the Air Force. Lectures and discussions center on gaining insight into the military officer, military law, ethics, law of armed conflict, and preparing for active duty as a second lieutenant. Class participation, comprehension, written and oral communication skills are stressed.	Part two of a two-part class that examines the basic elements of national security policy and process issues relevant to new Air Force officers.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Prerequisites		Aero 101, 102, 201, 202, 301, and 302

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
AMST 248		Cross-list: ENGL 248 POLI 248 WGST 249	Cross-list: ENGL 248 POLI 248 PSYC 348 WGST 249
	Effective Term		Spring 2019
AMST 375	Course Title	Food and American Studies: Cooking Up a Storm	Southern Food Studies: Beyond the Plate
	Transcript Title	AMERICAN FOOD STUDIES	SOUTHERN FOOD STUDIES
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ANTH 125	Honors		Both regular and honors course
	Honors Course Codes		ANTH 125H
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ANTH 335	Course Code	ANTH 440	ANTH 335
	allcodes	ANTH 440	ANTH 335
	Course Number	440	335
	Course Title	Beyond the Tragedy of the Commons	The Commons, Ecology, and Human Futures
	Transcript Title	BEYOND TRAG COMMON	COMMONS ECOLOGY HUMAN FUTURES
	Course Description	Reexamination of the 'tragedy of the commons' concept in light of recent work on environmental problems, property rights, and community-based conservation. Case studies include fishery, waterway, forest, and pasture management.	Commons are shared resources that make human life sustainable over time, and are an alternative to private property and the state. This course explores the Commons in terms of property rights, environmental problems, and political challenges using case studies from the fisheries, waterways, forests, and pasture management. Previously offered as ANTH 440.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	ANTH 345	Course Code	ANTH 466
allcodes		ANTH 466	ANTH 345
Course Number		466	345
Course Title		Alternative Economic Systems	Alternatives to Capitalism
Transcript Title		ALTERNATIVE ECONOMIC SYS	ALTERNATIVES TO CAPITALISM
Course Description		An investigation of economic systems that are sustainable alternatives to the prevailing economic order. Topics include markets, the commons, cooperatives, local trading systems, and social movements working to achieve alternatives.	An investigation of economic systems that are sustainable alternatives to the globally dominant political and economic order. Topics include markets, the Commons, cooperatives, local trading systems, participatory budgeting, and social movements seeking to bring these alternatives about. Throughout, the course asks: what can anthropology tell us about the potentials and limits of social transformation? Previously offered as ANTH 466.
Effective Term			Fall 2019
ANTH 350	Course Code	ANTH 491	ANTH 350
	allcodes	ANTH 491	ANTH 350
	Course Number	491	350
	Course Title	Political Anthropology	Anthropology of the State, Civil Society, and Politics
	Transcript Title	POLITICAL ANTHROPOLOGY	STATE CIVIL SOCIETY & POLITICS
	Course Description	Introduction to political anthropology. A thematically organized investigation of political processes in state societies, including state formation, with special attention to ethnographic and historical approaches.	This course is a thematically organized investigation of political processes in modern nation-states and corporate states in the current era of globalization. Using ethnographic and historical studies, we ask: what is happening to the contemporary nation-state, social and political life, and the conditions for human welfare given these processes? Previously offered as ANTH 491.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
ANTH 355	Course Code	ANTH 567	ANTH 355
	allcodes	ANTH 567	ANTH 355
	Course Number	567	355
	Course Title	Urban Anthropology	Life, Society and Work in the Globalized City
	Transcript Title	URBAN ANTHROPOLOGY	LIFE SOCIETY WORK GLOBAL CITY
	Course Description	Comparative study of the political economy and cultural politics of populations in spaces and landscapes in cities in America and Third World undergoing globalization, economic restructuring, and transnational immigration.	Contemporary cities are undergoing major transformations due to globalization, economic restructuring, political conflict, and transnational migration. This course is a comparative study of the structures of power, everyday life, and social inequalities in globalized cities in North America, Asia, and Europe. Previously offered as ANTH 567.
	Honors		Regular Course
APPL 390	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Credit Hours	.50-12	3
ARTH 282	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Course Description	Recommended preparation, any ARTH 50-80 or 100-199. The development of European art from 1850 to 1905, with an emphasis on French avant-garde movements including realism and impressionism.	The development of European art from 1850 to 1905, with an emphasis on French avant-garde movements including realism and impressionism, as well as international movements such as symbolism and art nouveau.
ARTS 305	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Course Title	Darkroom Photography	Introduction to Darkroom Photography
	Transcript Title	DARKROOM PHOTOGRAPHY	INTRO DARKROOM PHOTOGRAPHY
	Course Description	An introduction to the basic techniques of analog black and white photography, including film developing, darkroom printing, and print presentation.	Introduction to black and white photography in the darkroom through photograms, pinhole, SLR and TLR cameras, processing film, and making silver-gelatin prints. Concepts are developed through making, reading, and writing, engaging with established and historical artists, and critiquing peers' work. Black and white process and aesthetic is approached as tradition, genre, abstraction.
ARTS 405	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Course Title	Color Photography	Advanced Darkroom Photography
	Transcript Title	COLOR PHOTOGRAPHY	ADV DARKROOM PHOTO
	Course Description	The class will focus on lectures, readings, technical demonstrations, and visual assignments investigating color photography. Students will be responsible for completing a series of photographic assignments. Emphasis will be placed on intensive final projects.	Continuation of ARTS 305 with advanced focus on conceptual topics and black and white analog photography techniques.
	Prerequisites	ARTS 105	ARTS 105.
	Honors		Regular Course
ASIA 435	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Is Reactivate?		TRUE
	Cross-Listed Courses	PWAD 435	CMPL 535 PWAD 435
BIOL 253	allcodes	ASIA 435 PWAD 435	ASIA 435 CMPL 535 PWAD 435
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
BIOL 253	Course Description	In-depth study of physiological mechanisms at molecular, cellular, and system levels of organization. Students will develop analytical and problem solving skills. Intended for preprofessional students requiring a second semester of anatomy and physiology. Can be used as an allied science elective but not a biology course for the major.	In-depth study of physiological mechanisms at molecular, cellular, and system levels of organization. Students will develop analytical and problem solving skills. Intended for preprofessional students requiring a second semester of anatomy and physiology. Can be used as an allied science elective but not a biology elective course for the major or minor.
	Prerequisites	BIOL 252 and 252L; corequisite, BIOL 253L	BIOL 252 and 252L;
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Corequisites		corequisite, BIOL 253L

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
BIOL 272	Prerequisites	BIOL 101 and 101L	BIOL 101, and 101L or 102L.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
CHEM 395	Course Description	Required preparation, one CHEM course 420 or higher and permission of the instructor. For advanced chemistry and applied sciences majors conducting on-campus research. Students prepare a report for their faculty supervisor and present their work at a poster session. May count only once as a chemistry elective.	Required preparation, one CHEM course 420 or higher, or permission of the instructor. For advanced chemistry and applied sciences majors conducting on-campus research. Students prepare a report for their faculty supervisor and present their work at a poster session. May count only once as a chemistry elective.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
CHEM 481	Prerequisites	CHEM 102 or 102H, PHYS 116; pre- or corequisites, MATH 383 and PHYS 117; C- or better required in chemistry course prerequisites	CHEM 102 or 102H, PHYS 118 or 116; pre- or corequisites, MATH 383, and PHYS 119 or 117; C- or better required in chemistry course prerequisites
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
CHIN 203	Course Description	Second-year level of modern standard Chinese. Writing Chinese characters is required. Four hours per week. Students may not receive credit for both CHIN 203 or CHIN 204 and CHIN 212.	Second-year level of modern standard Chinese. Writing Chinese characters is required. Four hours per week.
	Paired courses are those for which a student may earn credit for only one of the courses in the pair/group. Use the green add button to list courses paired with this one.	Intermediate Written Chinese
	Should students be checked for the above requisites when registering for this course?	Yes	No
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
CHIN 212	Course Description	For students who already understand and speak some Chinese. The training course focuses on reading and writing. Writing Chinese characters is required. Three hours per week. Students may not receive credit for both CHIN 203 or CHIN 204 and CHIN 212.	For students who already understand and speak some Chinese. The training course focuses on reading and writing. Writing Chinese characters is required. Three hours per week. Students may not receive credit for both CHIN 204 and CHIN 212.
	Prerequisites	CHIN 111	CHIN 111.
	Paired courses are those for which a student may earn credit for only one of the courses in the pair/group. Use the green add button to list courses paired with this one.	Intermediate Chinese I	Intermediate Chinese II
	Should students be checked for the above requisites when registering for this course?	Yes	No
CHIN 510	Pre- or Co-requisites	CHIN 408 or 414	CHIN 407 or 414.
	Should students be checked for the above requisites when registering for this course?	Yes	No
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
CLAR 247	allcodes	CLAR 247	CLAR 247 ARTH 247
	Transcript Title	Roman Archaeology	ROMAN ARCHAEOLOGY
	Cross-Listed Courses		ARTH 247
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
CMPL 122	Course Description	This course offers students a survey of mutually supportive developments in literature and the visual arts from classical antiquity until around 1700.	This course offers students a survey of mutually supportive developments in literature and the visual arts from classical antiquity until around 1700. Fulfills a major core requirement.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
COMM 70		inactive

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
COMM 524	allcodes	COMM 524 WGST 524 COMM 524H WGST 524H	COMM 524 WGST 524
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, COMM 224 and 372.	Prerequisite, COMM 224.
	Prerequisites	COMM 224 and 372	COMM 224.
	Honors Course Codes	COMM 524H WGST 524H
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
COMM 563		inactive
COMM 664		inactive
COMM 665	Course Title	Performing Consumer Culture	Performance, Politics, and Culture
	Transcript Title	PERF CONSUMER CULTURE	PERF POLITICS CULTURE
	Course Description	Course addresses the operation of corporate power and consumer practices as political and cultural performances, and performance as a means of pursuing social and economic justice.	This course is a arts-based inquiry into the ways in which performance and theatricality structure contemporary politics, culture, and everyday life, as well as the ways in which artists utilize performance as mode of political engagement.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, COMM 160.	Prerequisite, COMM 61, 62, 63, 160, 260, 262, 263, or 464.
	Prerequisites	COMM 160	COMM 61, 62, 63, 160, 260, 262, 263, or 464.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
COMP 555	allcodes	COMP 555	COMP 555 BCB 555
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisites, COMP 401, 410, and MATH 231 or 241; a grade of C or better is required in all prerequisite courses.	COMP 401, 410, and MATH 231 or 241; or BIOL 452; or MATH 452; or BIOL 525. A grade of C or better is required in all prerequisite courses.
	Prerequisites	COMP 401, 410, and MATH 231 or 241; a grade of C or better is required in all prerequisite courses	COMP 401, 410, and MATH 231 or 241; or BIOL 452; or MATH 452; or BIOL 525. A grade of C or better is required in all prerequisite courses.
	Cross-Listed Courses		BCB 555
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
COMP 590	Course Description	This course has variable content and may be taken multiple times for credit.	This course has variable content and may be taken multiple times for credit. Different sections may be taken in the same semester.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
DRAM 193	May students take this course more than once for additional credit (as opposed to repeating for grade improvement only)?	No	Yes
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	How many cumulative total hours should students be allowed to earn for this course?		6
ECON 325	Course Title	Entrepreneurship: Principles and Practice	Entrepreneurship: Principles, Concepts, Frameworks, and Fluency
	Course Description	A historical overview of the role and importance of entrepreneurship in the economy and society, and a survey of the critical competencies all entrepreneurs (commercial, social, or artistic) must possess.	This class provides a foundation in key principles, concepts, and fluency in entrepreneurship, specifically in the areas of design thinking, understanding consumers and customers, company strategy, and entrepreneurial finance and capital formation. Additionally, the class introduces important skills and tools important in startups and growth companies such as branding, storytelling and video making.
	Prerequisites	ECON 101 and ECON 125; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisites	ECON 125; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisites.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Restriction Statement		Priority is given to students accepted into the Shuford Minor in Entrepreneurship.

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
ECON 393	Prerequisites	ECON 327 or PLCY 327	ECON 125, 325, and 327.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Restriction Statement		Priority is given to students accepted into the Shuford Minor in Entrepreneurship.
ECON 411	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, ECON 410 with a grade of C or better.	ECON 410 with a grade of C or better, COMP 550, POLI 287, or POLI 288; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisite.
	Prerequisites	ECON 410 with a grade of C or better; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisite	ECON 410 with a grade of C or better, COMP 550, POLI 287, or POLI 288; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisite.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ECON 511	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisites, ECON 400, 410, and MATH 233; a grade of C or better in ECON 400 and 410 is required.	ECON 400 and 410; a grade of C or better in ECON 400 and 410 is required; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisites.
	Prerequisites	ECON 400, 410, and MATH 233; a grade of C or better in ECON 400 and 410 is required; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisites	ECON 400 and 410; a grade of C or better in ECON 400 and 410 is required; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisites.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENEC 256	Course Description	Introduction to the new field of biodiversity studies, which integrates approaches from systematics, ecology, evolution, and conservation.	Introduction to the new field of biodiversity studies, which integrates approaches from systematics, ecology, evolution, and conservation. Taught at off-campus field station.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENEC 309	Course Description	Introduction to the methods for assigning value to aspects of the environment and to interhuman and human-environment interactions. The approach is interdisciplinary, drawing on methods from philosophy, ecology, psychology, aesthetics, economics, religion, etc.	Introduction to the methods for assigning value to aspects of the environment and to interhuman and human-environment interactions. The approach is interdisciplinary, drawing on methods from philosophy, ecology, psychology, aesthetics, economics, religion, etc. Online course.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENEC 351	Course Description	The utilization of common coastal resources, the management of fisheries, and coastal zone management guide an examination of coastal laws, policies, and regulations at the federal, state, and local levels.	The utilization of common coastal resources, the management of fisheries, and coastal zone management guide an examination of coastal laws, policies, and regulations at the federal, state, and local levels. Taught at off-campus field station.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENEC 405	Course Description	Introduces students to approaches used to preserve the natural and cultural heritage of the Southern Appalachians.	Introduces students to approaches used to preserve the natural and cultural heritage of the Southern Appalachians. Taught at off-campus field station.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENEC 474	Course Description	This course explores the environmental history of the Albemarle estuary and its larger watershed and explores ways in which humans can utilize this region in a more sustainable manner.	This course explores the environmental history of the Albemarle estuary and its larger watershed and explores ways in which humans can utilize this region in a more sustainable manner. Taught at off-campus field station.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENEC 479	Course Description	This course utilizes GIS, GPS, and remote sensing technologies to gather data on geology, watersheds, soils, integrated moisture indices. The class also develops habitat maps and derives species diversity indices.	This course utilizes GIS, GPS, and remote sensing technologies to gather data on geology, watersheds, soils, integrated moisture indices. The class also develops habitat maps and derives species diversity indices. Taught at off-campus field station.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENEC 482	Course Description	Explores coastal and offshore energy issues, including energy demand, present-day and innovative sources of energy to meet that demand, economics, policy, and environmental and human health outcomes of different energy sources. Summer session only; online and field trip hybrid course, with a mandatory 8-day field site component on the Outer Banks. Housing and field activities arranged by the instructor, which will carry a fee.	Explores coastal and offshore energy issues, including energy demand, present-day and innovative sources of energy to meet that demand, economics, policy, and environmental and human health outcomes of different energy sources. Summer session only; online and field trip hybrid course, with a mandatory 8-day field site component on the Outer Banks. Housing and field activities arranged by the instructor, which will carry a fee. Taught at off-campus field station.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
ENEC 485	Course Description	This course develops and applies core principles essential to understanding and evaluating coastal environmental policy and renewable resource use. The principles include the economics of pollution, public choice, information and cost-benefit analysis, property rights, incentive-based regulation, and the economics of renewable resources. Includes insights from politics and ethics.	This course develops and applies core principles essential to understanding and evaluating coastal environmental policy and renewable resource use. The principles include the economics of pollution, public choice, information and cost-benefit analysis, property rights, incentive-based regulation, and the economics of renewable resources. Includes insights from politics and ethics. Taught at off-campus field station.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENEC 489	Course Description	Principles of analysis of the structure and function of ecosystems are applied to environmental phenomena. The link between the biosphere and other environmental compartments is explored through case studies of environmental issues. Three lecture hours and one laboratory hour a week.	Principles of analysis of the structure and function of ecosystems are applied to environmental phenomena. The link between the biosphere and other environmental compartments is explored through case studies of environmental issues. Three lecture hours and one laboratory hour a week. Taught at off-campus field station.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENGL 73	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Paired courses are those for which a student may earn credit for only one of the courses in the pair/group. Use the green add button to list courses paired with this one.		Literature of War from World War I to the 21st Century
ENGL 80		inactive
ENGL 100	Course Description	Required for incoming students with SAT I Writing scores of 460 or lower. Provides frequent practice in writing, from short paragraphs to longer papers, focusing on analysis and argument. Workshop format.	Required for incoming students with SAT Evidence-Based Reading and Writing or ACT scores below a threshold set by the Department. Please visit the Department website for the most updated scores. The courses focuses on academic writing in a variety of contexts. Workshop format involves frequent writing and revision.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENGL 120	Course Description	Required of English majors. Survey of medieval, Renaissance, and neoclassical periods. Drama, poetry, and prose.	Survey of medieval, Renaissance, and neoclassical periods. Drama, poetry, and prose.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENGL 150	Course Description	Sophomore English majors only. This course (or ENGL 121) is required of English majors. Introduces students to methods of literary study. Students learn to read and interpret a range of literary works, develop written and oral arguments about literature, and conduct literary research.	Fulfills a major core requirement. Introduces students to methods of literary study. Students learn to read and interpret a range of literary works, develop written and oral arguments about literature, and conduct literary research.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENGL 164	Course Code	ENGL 364	ENGL 164
	allcodes	ENGL 364 ENGL 364H	ENGL 164 ENGL 164H
	Course Number	364	164
	Course Description	Introduction to the major questions within Latina/o studies in terms of transnationalism, transculturation, ethnicity, race, class, gender, sexuality, systems of value, and aesthetics.	Introduction to major questions of Latina/o Studies through an examination of literature, culture, the visual arts, and music. Topics include imperialism, colonialism, labor, decolonization, nationalism, ethnicity and other aspects of identity and identification, and new rubrics. Previously offered as ENGL 364.
	Honors Course Codes	ENGL 364H	ENGL 164H
Effective Term		Fall 2019

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
ENGL 292	Course Title	Depictions of Childhood in Literature and the Visual Arts	Youth in Culture
	Transcript Title	DEPICTIONS OF CHILDHOOD	YOUTH IN CULTURE
	Course Description	This course considers a range of texts, including children's literature, to focus on the aesthetic, historical, and social factors grounding depictions of childhood. Other material includes literature and visual texts in various forms. The course stresses original student research.	An examination of youth in culture through a range of texts that focus on the aesthetic, historical, and social factors grounding the depiction of youth in the past and its experience and representation today. The course stresses original student research and oral and written presentation.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENGL 302	Course Title	Advanced Expository Writing for the Social Sciences	Professional Communication for Social Movements
	Transcript Title	ADV EXPS WRIT/SOC SCI	PROF COMM IN SOC SCI
	Course Description	Advanced practice with the oral and written discourse of the social sciences. Special attention to disciplinary rhetoric, style, genre, format, and citation.	Advanced course focused on writing for professional audiences in non-profit, public policy, social justice, and social entrepreneurship settings. Includes oral, written, and digital compositions. Students will compose documents such as grant proposals, policy reports, websites, public presentations, or multimedia videos to advance social causes.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENGL 303	Course Title	Advanced Expository Writing for the Natural Sciences	Scientific and Technical Communication
	Transcript Title	ADV EXPS WRIT/NAT SCI	SCI/TECH COMM
	Course Description	Advanced practice with the oral and written discourse of the natural sciences. Special attention to disciplinary rhetoric, style, genre, format, and citation.	Advanced course focused on adapting scientific and technical content to public or non-expert audiences in oral, written, and digital forms. Assignments may include composing professional reports, developing multimedia instructions for a product, or developing an interactive exhibit.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENGL 304	Course Title	Advanced Expository Writing for Business	Advanced Business Communication
	Transcript Title	ADV EXPS WRIT/BUSINESS	ADV BUSINESS COMM
	Course Description	Advanced practice with business and professional oral and written discourse. Special attention to disciplinary rhetoric, style, genre, format, and citation.	Advanced practice with business and professional oral, written, and multimedia forms. Students will develop business proposals, reports, plans, and professional oral presentations for professional audiences.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ENGL 305	Course Title	Advanced Expository Writing for Law	Advanced Legal Communication
	Transcript Title	ADV EXPS WRIT/LAW	ADV LEGAL COMM
	Course Description	Advanced practice with legal oral and written discourse. Special attention to disciplinary rhetoric, style, genre, format, and citation.	Advanced practice with oral, written, and digital composition for legal settings.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
EXSS 191	Course Description	An intensive study of modern dance technique and philosophy, focusing on the physical principles of movement and their choreographic application. One hour seminar and four and one-half hours laboratory.	An introduction to modern dance technique, history, and philosophy focusing on the physical principles of movement and their choreographic application. Students will participate in a combination of lectures and studio time.
	Prerequisites	PHYA 224
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
EXSS 450	Course Code	EXSS 350	EXSS 450
	allcodes	EXSS 350	EXSS 450
	Course Number	350	450
	Prerequisites	EXSS 175, 275L, and 276	EXSS 175 and 276
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
FOLK 380	Cross-Listed Courses	JWST 505	JWST 380
	Course Code	FOLK 505	FOLK 380
	allcodes	FOLK 505 JWST 505	FOLK 380 JWST 380
	Course Number	505	380
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
GEOG 222	Course Description	The human ecology of health is studied by analyzing the cultural/environmental interactions that lie behind world patterns of disease distribution, diffusion, and treatment, and the ways these are being altered by development. Previously offered as GEOG 445. (GHA)	Health and disease are studied by analyzing the cultural/environmental interactions that lie behind world patterns of disease distribution, diffusion, and treatment, and the ways these are being altered by development. Previously offered as GEOG 445. (GHA)
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
GEOG 254	Cross-Listed Courses	FOLK 454	FOLK 254
	Course Code	GEOG 454	GEOG 254
	allcodes	GEOG 454 FOLK 454	GEOG 254 FOLK 254
	Course Number	454	254
	Course Title	Historical Geography of the United States	American Historical Geographies
	Transcript Title	HISTORICAL/US	U.S. HISTORICAL GEOGRAPHIES
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
GEOG 259	Course Title	Geography of Latin America	Society and Environment in Latin America
	Transcript Title	LATIN AMERICA	SOCIETY/ENVIR IN LATIN AMER
	Course Description	An introduction to Latin American geography through an examination of how the region came to be distinct and how social, political, and economic processes continue to define it. (Regional)	This survey course examines political, cultural, and biophysical dimensions of human-environment relations across the ecologically diverse and historically rich region of Latin America. It draws on multiple data sources, perspectives, and media to explore sub-regions and their biocultural histories, including the Caribbean, Andes, Amazon, Central and North America, and their relationship with the United States.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
GEOG 266	Course Title	People and Environment in Southeast Asia	Society and Environment in Southeast Asia
	Transcript Title	PEOPLE & ENVIRONMENT: SE	SOCIETY/ENVIR SOUTHEAST ASIA
	Course Description	Sociological, biophysical, and geographical elements are integrated to examine interactions of population and environment in Thailand and neighboring countries. Diverse data sources and perspectives will be used to examine local to global issues. (Regional)	This survey integrates sociological, biophysical, and geographical elements to examine interactions of population and environment across the ecologically-diverse and historically-rich region of Southeast Asia. Draws on multiple data sources, perspectives, and media to explore Vietnam, Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, Burma/Myanmar, the Philippines, and neighboring countries.
GEOG 281	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Course Code	GEOG 481	GEOG 281
	allcodes	GEOG 481	GEOG 281
	Course Number	481	281
	Course Title	Ethnographies of Globalization: An Upper-Level Research Design Class	Ethnographies of Globalization: From "Culture" to Decolonization
	Course Description	Examines critical perspectives on globalization through research interviews conducted by social scientists working on topics ranging from land reform in Brazil to international banking.	This course will provide lower level undergraduate students with a survey of ethnographic research in geography and related fields. We will examine studies from work, labor, and gender, to indigenous youth and decolonization.

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
GEOG 441	Transcript Title	WATERSHED SYSTEMS	WATERSHED HYDROLOGY
	Course Description	Introduction to hydrologic and geomorphic processes and forms in watersheds as applied to problems in flood analysis, water quality, and interactions with ecosystem processes. Covers drainage networks, nested catchments, and distribution and controls of precipitation, evaporation, runoff, and groundwater flow. (EES)	Introduction to hydrologic and geomorphic processes in watersheds as applied to problems in flood analysis, water quality, and interactions of hydrology and environmental sciences. Drainage networks, nested catchments, and distribution and controls of precipitation, evaporation, runoff, and groundwater flow. Includes local field trips. (EES)
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, ENST 202 or GEOG 110.	ENST 202 or GEOG 110.
	Prerequisites	ENEC 202 or GEOG 110; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisite	ENEC 202 or GEOG 110; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisite.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
GEOG 457	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, GEOG 259.
	Prerequisites	GEOG 259; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisite
	Should students be checked for the above requisites when registering for this course?	Yes	No
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
GERM 266	allcodes	GERM 266	GERM 266 CMPL 266
	Cross-Listed Courses		CMPL 266
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
GERM 267	allcodes	GERM 267	GERM 267 CMPL 267
	Cross-Listed Courses		CMPL 267
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
GERM 271	Cross-Listed Courses	WGST 250	CMPL 271 WGST 271
	Course Code	GERM 250	GERM 271
	allcodes	GERM 250 WGST 250	GERM 271 CMPL 271 WGST 271
	Course Number	250	271
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
GERM 272	Course Code	GERM 275	GERM 272
	allcodes	GERM 275	GERM 272 CMPL 272
	Course Number	275	272
	Cross-Listed Courses		CMPL 272
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
GERM 279	Paired courses are those for which a student may earn credit for only one of the courses in the pair/group. Use the green add button to list courses paired with this one.	Once Upon A Fairy Tale: Fairy Tales and Childhood, Then and Now Course GSLL 54 not Found	Once Upon A Fairy Tale: Fairy Tales and Childhood, Then and Now First-Year Seminar: Once upon a Fairy Tale: Fairy Tales and Childhood, Then and Now
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
GERM 374	May students take this course more than once for additional credit (as opposed to repeating for grade improvement only)?	No	Yes
	Should students be checked for the above requisites when registering for this course?	Yes	No
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	How many cumulative total hours should students be allowed to earn for this course?		6

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
GSSL 54	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Paired courses are those for which a student may earn credit for only one of the courses in the pair/group. Use the green add button to list courses paired with this one.		Once Upon A Fairy Tale: Fairy Tales and Childhood, Then and Now Once Upon A Fairy Tale: Fairy Tales and Childhood, Then and Now
IDST 201	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Restriction Statement		Permission of the instructor to add and drop this course. Please place this restriction at the course-level.
ITAL 241	Course Title	Italian Renaissance Literature in Translation	The Renaissance Mind
	Transcript Title	ITAL REN LIT IN TRANS	THE RENAISSANCE MIND
	Course Description	A study of the major authors of the Italian Renaissance, with special attention to Petrarch, Boccaccio, Machiavelli, Castiglione, Ariosto, and Tasso.	A study of the major figures of the Italian Renaissance, including writers, philosophers, artists, inventors, and scientists. In English.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ITAL 242	Course Title	Modern Italian Literature in Translation	Italy and Modernity
	Transcript Title	MOD ITAL LIT IN TRANS	ITALY AND MODERNITY
	Course Description	A study of the major prose writers of modern Italian literature, with special attention given to Manzoni, Verga, Pirandello, Svevo, Moravia, Lampedusa, and other contemporary novelists.	A study of the icons of modern Italian literature and culture, with special attention given to twentieth-century novelists, visual artists, thinkers, and critics. In English.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ITAL 331	Course Title	Italian Civilization II	Italian History and Culture II
	Transcript Title	ITAL CIV II	ITALIAN HISTORY AND CULTURE II
	Course Description	A multidisciplinary examination of postunification Italian culture conducted in Italian. The course will trace out recurrent themes by examining texts from various media: film, literature, music, television, journalism, and architecture.	A multidisciplinary examination of Italian society and culture from its national unification until the present. The course will cover many cultural and political themes by examining texts from various media: film, literature, music, television, journalism, and architecture. In Italian.
	Prerequisites	ITAL 204 or 402	ITAL 204 or 402.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
ITAL 370	Course Title	Survey of Italian Literature I	Masterpieces of Italian Literature and Culture I
	Transcript Title	SURVEY ITAL LIT 1	MASTERPIECES ITAL LIT & CULT I
	Course Description	A survey of Italian literature from its origins through the 16th century.	An examination of major movements in Italian literary, cultural, political, and intellectual history, from medieval times through the 16th century. Includes poetry, epics, treatises, and theatrical excerpts. In Italian.
	Prerequisites	ITAL 204 and 402; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisite	ITAL 204 and 402; permission of the instructor for students lacking the prerequisite.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
JAPN 231	Course Title	Premodern Japanese History and Culture	Ancient and Medieval Japanese History and Culture
	Transcript Title	PREMODERN JAPANESE HIST/CULT	ANCIENT AND MEDIEVAL JAPAN
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
LING 573	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Prerequisites		LING 101, and one of LING 200, LING 376, or LING 422.
LTAM 690	Course Description		Special topics course. Content will vary each semester.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
MASC 448	Course Description	A field-intensive study of the ecology of marine organisms and their interactions with their environment, including commercially important organisms. Laboratory/recitation/field work is included and contributes two credit hours to the course.	A field-intensive study of the ecology of marine organisms and their interactions with their environment, including commercially important organisms. Laboratory/recitation/field work is included and contributes two credit hours to the course. Taught at off-campus field station.
	Prerequisites	CHEM 102 and MATH 231	CHEM 102 and MATH 231.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
MUSC 493	Course Description	Internship directly related to the study, practice, or the business of music. Students must complete at least 100 hours and submit a journal and report upon completion of the internship.	Internship directly related to the study, practice, or the business of music. Students must complete at least 100 hours and submit a journal and report upon completion of the internship. No more than three credit hours may count toward the requirements of the music major. Excess hours may count as credit hours toward graduation, subject to the overall limit on music hours.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 71	Course Code	PSYC 71	NSCI 71
	allcodes	PSYC 71	NSCI 71
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Transcript Title	FYS: Plasticity and Brain	FYS: PLASTICITY AND BRAIN
	Course Description	This course will introduce students to the recent research and debate regarding neural plasticity and the ability of the healthy adult brain to change. Exciting new research suggests that the ability of the adult brain to change goes well beyond simply acquiring new knowledge and memories.	This course will introduce students to the recent research and debate regarding neural plasticity and the ability of the healthy adult brain to change. Exciting new research suggests that the ability of the adult brain to change goes well beyond simply acquiring new knowledge and memories. Previously offered as PSYC 71.
Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 175	Course Code	PSYC 175	NSCI 175
	allcodes	PSYC 175	NSCI 175
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	Provides an introduction to the structure and function of the nervous system. Fundamental principles will be introduced including nervous system anatomy; molecular and cellular properties of the nervous system; sensory and motor systems; current methods used in neuroscience; and how the nervous system produces behavior and cognition. This course provides greater breadth and depth of neuroscience topics, as compared to Biopsychology (PSYC 220). Previously offered as PSYC 315.	Provides an introduction to the structure and function of the nervous system. Fundamental principles will be introduced including nervous system anatomy; molecular and cellular properties of the nervous system; sensory and motor systems; current methods used in neuroscience; and how the nervous system produces behavior and cognition. This course provides greater breadth and depth of neuroscience topics, as compared to Biopsychology (PSYC 220). Previously offered as PSYC 175 and 315.
	Honors		Regular Course
Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 222	Course Code	PSYC 222	NSCI 222
	allcodes	PSYC 222 PSYC 222H	NSCI 222 NSCI 222H
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	Topics in Pavlovian and operant (instrumental) conditioning, learning theory, higher order cognitive learning, and application of those principles to mental-health related situations.	Topics in Pavlovian and operant (instrumental) conditioning, learning theory, higher order cognitive learning, and application of those principles to mental-health related situations. Previously offered as PSYC 222.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, PSYC 101.	NSCI 175 or PSYC 101
	Prerequisites	PSYC 101	NSCI 175 or PSYC 101.
	Honors Course Codes	PSYC 222H	NSCI 222H
	Effective Term		Fall 2019

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
NSCI 225	Course Code	PSYC 225	NSCI 225
	allcodes	PSYC 225 PSYC 225H	NSCI 225 NSCI 225H
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	Topics in vision, audition, and the lower senses. Receptor mechanisms, psychophysical methods, and selected perceptual phenomena will be discussed.	Topics in vision, audition, and the lower senses. Receptor mechanisms, psychophysical methods, and selected perceptual phenomena will be discussed. Previously offered as PSYC 225.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, PSYC 101.	NSCI 175 or PSYC 101.
	Prerequisites	PSYC 101	NSCI 175 or PSYC 101.
	Honors Course Codes	PSYC 225H	NSCI 225H
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 401	Course Code	PSYC 401	NSCI 401
	allcodes	PSYC 401 NBIO 401	NSCI 401 NBIO 401
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	PSYC 270 recommended. Ethological, genetic, and physiological variables will be studied in relation to their behavioral effects.	PSYC 270 recommended. Ethological, genetic, and physiological variables will be studied in relation to their behavioral effects. Previously offered as PSYC 401.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisites, PSYC 101, and BIOL 101 or PSYC 222.	BIOL 101 and NSCI 175, or combination of BIOL 101, PSYC 101, and PSYC 222.
	Prerequisites	PSYC 101, and PSYC 222 or BIOL 101	BIOL 101 and NSCI 175, or combination of BIOL 101, PSYC 101, and PSYC 222.
Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 403	Course Code	PSYC 403	NSCI 403
	allcodes	PSYC 403 PSYC 403H	NSCI 403 PSYC 403H
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	"Hands on" laboratory course designed to introduce students to experimental protocols emphasizing "brain-behavior" relationships. Topics include gross neuroanatomy, stereotaxic surgery, and the effects of drugs on behavior.	"Hands on" laboratory course designed to introduce students to experimental protocols emphasizing "brain-behavior" relationships. Topics include gross neuroanatomy, stereotaxic surgery, and the effects of drugs on behavior. Previously offered as PSYC 403.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisites, PSYC 101 and one of PSYC 175, 220, or 402	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and PSYC 220.
	Prerequisites	PSYC 101 and one of PSYC 175, 220, or 402	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and PSYC 220.
Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 415	Course Code	PSYC 415	NSCI 415
	allcodes	PSYC 415	NSCI 415
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	In this class, we will consider how neuroscience emerged as a multidisciplinary field. The class will cover key research findings that propelled the field forward. We will also delve into the autobiographies of some of the pioneering researchers who made these important discoveries.	In this class, we will consider how neuroscience emerged as a multidisciplinary field. The class will cover key research findings that propelled the field forward. We will also delve into the autobiographies of some of the pioneering researchers who made these important discoveries. Previously offered as PSYC 415.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, PSYC 220 or 315.	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and 220.
	Prerequisites	PSYC 175 or 220	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and 220.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
NSCI 420	Course Code	PSYC 420	NSCI 420
	allcodes	PSYC 420	NSCI 420
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	For advanced undergraduate and graduate students. An introduction to human neuroanatomy, covering function of the neuroanatomy of each major system and relation to neurobehavioral disorders associated with damage to the neuroanatomy of the system.	For advanced undergraduate and graduate students. An introduction to human neuroanatomy, covering function of the neuroanatomy of each major system and relation to neurobehavioral disorders associated with damage to the neuroanatomy of the system. Previously offered as PSYC 420.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, PSYC 220, 315, and BIOL 455.	NSCI 175 and BIOL 455, or combination of PSYC 101, 220, and BIOL 455
	Prerequisites	PSYC 175, 220, and BIOL 455	NSCI 175 and BIOL 455, or combination of PSYC 101, 220, and BIOL 455.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 424	Course Code	PSYC 424	NSCI 424
	allcodes	PSYC 424	NSCI 424
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	This class will explore links between the brain and behavior through neuroscience outreach activities. Students will also reflect on the meaning of community engagement. By the end of the semester, each student must complete a minimum of 30 hours of service within the community.	This class will explore links between the brain and behavior through neuroscience outreach activities. Students will also reflect on the meaning of community engagement. By the end of the semester, each student must complete a minimum of 30 hours of service within the community. Previously offered as PSYC 424.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, PSYC 220 or PSYC 315.	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and 220.
	Prerequisites	PSYC 175 or PSYC 220	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and 220.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 427	Course Code	PSYC 427	NSCI 427
	allcodes	PSYC 427	NSCI 427
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	This course will survey clinical and experimental literature regarding the neurobiology of aging, considering different theories of aging, how aging is studied in the laboratory, and recent findings. Biochemical, molecular, physiological, and behavioral changes associated with both "normal" and pathological aging will be considered.	This course will survey clinical and experimental literature regarding the neurobiology of aging, considering different theories of aging, how aging is studied in the laboratory, and recent findings. Biochemical, molecular, physiological, and behavioral changes associated with both "normal" and pathological aging will be considered. Previously offered as PSYC 427.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, PSYC 220 or 315.	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and 220.
	Prerequisites	PSYC 175 or 220	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and 220.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 428	Course Code	PSYC 428	NSCI 428
	allcodes	PSYC 428	NSCI 428
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	Neuroscience is a "hot" topic in popular media. We will consider media coverage of neuroscientific research by reading the popular press versions of studies alongside the findings from primary sources and what kinds of topics are most often covered by the media and why.	Neuroscience is a "hot" topic in popular media. We will consider media coverage of neuroscientific research by reading the popular press versions of studies alongside the findings from primary sources and what kinds of topics are most often covered by the media and why. Previously offered as PSYC 428.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, PSYC 220 or 315.	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and 220.
	Prerequisites	PSYC 175 or 220	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and 220.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
NSCI 434	Course Code	PSYC 434	NSCI 434
	allcodes	PSYC 434	NSCI 434
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	Introduction to cognitive neuroscience. Higher mental processes including attention, memory, language, and consciousness will be covered, with an emphasis on the neural mechanisms that form the substrates of human cognition.	Introduction to cognitive neuroscience. Higher mental processes including attention, memory, language, and consciousness will be covered, with an emphasis on the neural mechanisms that form the substrates of human cognition. Previously offered as PSYC 434.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisites, PSYC 101 and 210; and one of PSYC 175, 220, 222, 225, 230 or BIOL 450, 455.	NSCI 175 and PSYC 230, or combination of PSYC 101, 220, and 230.
	Prerequisites	PSYC 101 and 210; and one of PSYC 175, 220, 222, 225, 230 or BIOL 450, 455	NSCI 175 and PSYC 230, or combination of PSYC 101, 220, and 230.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 437	Course Code	PSYC 437	NSCI 437
	allcodes	PSYC 437	NSCI 437
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	This course surveys current knowledge about and research into the neurobiological basis of learning and memory. Using a combination of lectures and student-led discussions, we will critically evaluate the molecular, cellular, systems, and behavioral research that strives to explain how the brain learns and remembers.	This course surveys current knowledge about and research into the neurobiological basis of learning and memory. Using a combination of lectures and student-led discussions, we will critically evaluate the molecular, cellular, systems, and behavioral research that strives to explain how the brain learns and remembers. Previously offered as PSYC 437.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisites, PSYC 101 and 175 or 220	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and 220
	Prerequisites	PSYC 101 and 175 or 220; BIOL 101 recommended	Prerequisite, NSCI 175, or both PSYC 101 and 220; BIOL 101 recommended.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 507	Course Code	PSYC 507	NSCI 507
	allcodes	PSYC 507	NSCI 507
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	Intensive service-learning seminar on autism includes a supervised community placement. Topics include historical diagnostic issues, etiological theories, assessing patterns of functioning, developmental/life span issues, family concerns, and intervention approaches.	Intensive service-learning seminar on autism includes a supervised community placement. Topics include historical diagnostic issues, etiological theories, assessing patterns of functioning, developmental/life span issues, family concerns, and intervention approaches. Previously offered as PSYC 507.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisites, PSYC 101, 245, and 250.	NSCI 175 or PSYC 101, and both PSYC 245 and 250.
	Prerequisites	PSYC 101, 245, and 250	NSCI 175 or PSYC 101, and both PSYC 245 and 250.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
NSCI 568	Course Code	PSYC 568	NSCI 568
	allcodes	PSYC 568	NSCI 568
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	This course will provide a comprehensive overview of the scientific study of emotion. Topics will include theoretical models of emotion process and structure. A range of perspectives, including social, cultural, developmental, clinical, and cognitive psychology, as well as behavioral neuroscience, will be considered.	This course will provide a comprehensive overview of the scientific study of emotion. Topics will include theoretical models of emotion process and structure. A range of perspectives, including social, cultural, developmental, clinical, and cognitive psychology, as well as behavioral neuroscience, will be considered. Previously offered as PSYC 568.
	Prerequisites	PSYC 101	NSCI 175 or PSYC 101.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Enforced Requisites		NSCI 175 or PSYC 101.

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
NSCI 571	Course Code	PSYC 571	NSCI 571
	allcodes	PSYC 571	NSCI 571
	Course Prefix	PSYC - PSYCHOLOGY	NSCI - NEUROSCIENCE
	Course Description	Recommended preparation, PSYC 220 or 315. Social neuroscience is the study of how social processes and experiences are represented in and influence the structure and function of the brain. This course will focus primarily on functional magnetic resonance imaging (fMRI) studies of humans, though we will also discuss other brain imaging techniques and patient studies.	Social neuroscience is the study of how social processes and experiences are represented in and influence the structure and function of the brain. This course will focus primarily on functional magnetic resonance imaging (fMRI) studies of humans, though we will also discuss other brain imaging techniques and patient studies. Previously offered as PSYC 571.
	Prerequisites	PSYC 101 and 260	NSCI 175 and PSYC 260, or combination of PSYC 101, 220, and 260.
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Enforced Requisites		NSCI 175 and PSYC 260, or combination of PSYC 101, 220, and 260.
PHIL 397	Course Title	Colloquium for Philosophy Majors	Philosophy Research Seminar for Undergraduates
	Transcript Title	COLL PHIL MAJORS	PHIL RESEARCH SEMINAR
	Course Description	Students will present papers on selected topics for critical discussion. Recommended for philosophy majors in their junior year.	This course is designed to approximate the experience of a graduate seminar in philosophy. The course topic is different each year; class meetings are discussion-based and focused on developing professional writing and research skills. Recommended for all majors and minors.
	Enforced Requisites	Prerequisite, One previous PHIL course.	two previous PHIL courses.
	Prerequisites	one previous PHIL course	two previous PHIL courses.
Effective Term		Fall 2019
PHYS 295	Course Description	Research with a faculty mentor. Approved learning contract required.	Students undertake independent research with a faculty mentor. Approved learning contract required.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
PHYS 395	allcodes	PHYS 395 PHYS 395H	PHYS 395
	Course Description	Research with a faculty mentor. Approved learning contract required. Additionally, students write and submit a proposal to an internal or external competition for funding intended for students. They also give a poster or oral presentation on the topic of their research at an appropriate symposium or meeting.	Students undertake independent research with a faculty mentor. Approved learning contract required. A research proposal and/or summary research report is required. Although not mandatory, a submission of a research proposal to an internal or external competition for funding is encouraged. Students must also present their research at an appropriate symposium, conference, or seminar.
	Honors	Both regular and honors course	Regular Course
	Honors Course Codes	PHYS 395H
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
PLCY 293	May students take this course more than once for additional credit (as opposed to repeating for grade improvement only)?	Yes	No
	How many cumulative total hours should students be allowed to earn for this course?	6
	Restriction Statement	Permission of the instructor.	At least one PLCY course.
	What type of course is this?	Lecture or Seminar (no recitation)	Lecture, Field Work
	Honors		Regular Course
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Prerequisites		At least one PLCY course.
	Enforced Requisites		At least one PLCY course.
PLCY 327		inactive

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
PLCY 390	May students take this course more than once for additional credit (as opposed to repeating for grade improvement only)?	No	Yes
	Course Title	Special Topics in Public Policy (Undergraduate)	Special Topics in Public Policy
	Transcript Title	SPECIAL TOPICS IN PUB PL	SPECIAL TOPICS IN PUB PLCY
	Credit Hours	3	1.0-3.0
	May students enroll in this course more than once within the same term (e.g., different topics)?	No	Yes
	Effective Term		Spring 2019
	How many cumulative total hours should students be allowed to earn for this course?		6
	How does this course fit within the curriculum? Check all that apply.		This course is an elective toward degree completion. This course contributes to the major/minor.
PLCY 440		inactive
PLCY 455		inactive
POLI 53		inactive
POLI 73		inactive
POLI 130	Course Description	This course highlights the comparative method by seeking to understand differences among diverse states on several continents.	This course examines the diversity of political arrangements in societies across the globe.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
POLI 150	Course Title	International Relations and World Politics	International Relations and Global Politics
	Transcript Title	INTERN REL WRLD POL	INTL REL & GLBL POL
	Course Description	The analysis of politics among nations.	An introduction to the study of political and economic relations in the international system. Topics covered include international conflict, trade, global finance, international institutions, civil war, and human rights.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
POLI 193	May students take this course more than once for additional credit (as opposed to repeating for grade improvement only)?	Yes	No
	How many cumulative total hours should students be allowed to earn for this course?	6
	Course Description	Required preparation, six hours of POLI course credit. An opportunity to obtain credit for an internship in a government or public service organization. Pass/Fail only. Does not count toward the political science major. Requires permission of the department. Open to political science majors only.	An opportunity to obtain credit for an internship in a government or public service organization. Pass/Fail only. Does not count toward the political science major. Requires permission of the department. Open to political science majors only.
	Should students be checked for the above requisites when registering for this course?	Yes	No
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
	Prerequisites		at least two POLI courses.
POLI 218		inactive

Code	Field	Old Value	New Value
POLI 234	Course Code	POLI 131	POLI 234
	allcodes	POLI 131	POLI 234
	Course Number	131	234
	Course Title	Political Change and Modernization	Comparative Politics of the Global South
	Transcript Title	POLI CHANGE & MOD	COMP POLI OF GLOBAL SOUTH
	Course Description	An overview of politics and government in the Third World, emphasizing characteristics, problems, and solutions (successful and otherwise) common to nations making the attempt to modernize.	An overview of politics and government in the Global South, emphasizing theories and challenges of development, modernization, and democratization. Regional emphasis may vary by instructor.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
POLI 238	Course Title	Contemporary Latin American Politics	Politics of the Global South: Latin America
	Transcript Title	CONT LAT AM POLI	POLI GLOBAL SOUTH LAT AM
	Course Description	An introduction to contemporary political conditions in Latin America, including consideration of leading theoretical explanations. Country emphasis varies with instructor.	An introduction to politics and political economy of Latin America, emphasizing Latin America's position in the Global South and including consideration of leading theoretical explanations of development and political change. Country emphasis varies with instructor.
	Should students be checked for the above requisites when registering for this course?	Yes	No
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
POLI 274		inactive
POLI 281	Course Title	Quantitative Research in Political Science	Data in Politics I: An Introduction
	Transcript Title	QUANT POLI SCI	DATA IN POLITICS I
	Course Description	An introduction to 1) conceptual foundations of scientific study of politics, 2) research design, 3) descriptive statistics, and 4) inferential statistics. To accomplish these goals, the course employs class lectures, readings, and problem set assignments.	The Information Revolution has had a transformative effect on business, journalism, law, policy, and more. This course illustrates the breadth of ways in which data can help solve important social problems and increases students' comfort handling and analyzing data themselves. Students leave with a foundation for acquiring more advanced techniques.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
POLI 402		inactive
POLI 436		inactive
POLI 437		inactive
POLI 453		inactive
POLI 490	Course Title	Advanced Undergraduate Seminar	Advanced Special Topics in Political Science
	Transcript Title	ADV UND SEMINAR	ADV SPECIAL TOPICS/POLI
	May students enroll in this course more than once within the same term (e.g., different topics)?	No	Yes
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
POLI 633		inactive
POLI 150L	Course Title	International Relations and World Politics Research Laboratory	International Relations and Global Politics Research Laboratory
	Corequisites	POLI 150	POLI 150.
	Effective Term		Fall 2019
PSYC 245	Course Title	Abnormal Psychology	Psychopathology
	Transcript Title	ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY	PSYCHOPATHOLOGY
	Prerequisites	PSYC 101	PSYC 101.
	Approaches requirement	Physical and Life Science
	What type of course is this?	Lecture, Correspondence (Friday Center Only)	Lecture or Seminar (no recitation)
	Effective Term		Fall 2019